

TABLE OF CONTENTS

vii	Foreword
xi	The Story of a Doctor and a Patient
xiii	How to Use This Book
xix	Acknowledgments
1	Introduction—The Active Management of Dying 8 / Questions for Reflection 9 / Death: Well-Managed vs. Chaotic 10 / Principles of The Active Management of Dying
13	Chapter 1—Accept the Reality of the Situation 13 / Moving Through Fear to Hope 18 / Despair 21 / Denial 25 / Hope 32 / Doctor Shopping 33 / Anticipatory Grieving
41	Chapter 2—Identify the Decision-Makers 42 / Informed Consent 44 / Informed Consent Requires Capacity 46 / Advance Directives 48 / Out-of-Hospital/EMS DNR Order 49 / The Role of the Surrogate 49 / How the Process Works 51 / Summary of the Process 52 / Moral Decision-Making 54 / Subjective Factors 55 / Obtaining Help

57	Chapter 3—Discuss the Ultimate Goals of Care
	58 / Start with Attitudes
	60 / Defining Ineffective Treatment
	61 / The Ultimate Goal of Care
	61 / How Far Should Doctors Go in Assisting Death?
	62 / A Graded List of Medical Interventions
	65 / How do you decide what you want?
	67 / How do we die?
	71 / How does this impact your planning?
	79 / Myths about Dying
89	Chapter 4—Create an End-of-Life Care Plan
93	Chapter 5—Implement the Care Plan You Created
	94 / Roles Assigned to Team Members
97	Chapter 6—Financial Planning
	98 / Who Will Take Care of Us?
	101 / Home Care
	102 / Assisted Living
	103 / Hospice
	103 / Retirement Communities
	104 / Medicare
	107 / Medicaid
	110 / Veteran’s Admin (VA)
	111 / Long-Term Care Insurance
117	Chapter 7—Narrative Case Examples
	117 / Case 1: Mr. Miller
	122 / Case 2: Mr. Smith
	127 / Case 3: Rev. Fisk
	128 / Case 4: Ms. Pinchon
	131 / A Personal Note
135	Chapter 8—Specific Advice For End-of-Life Care
	135 / For Patients
	138 / For Families
	141 / Dementia
	143 / For Health Care Professionals
155	Chapter 9—Grieving
	155 / “Sweeping Up the Heart and Putting Love Away”
	167 / After Death Has Occurred

169	Chapter 10—End-of-Life Care in the Nursing Home
	170 / Nursing Home Resources
	174 / Strategies for Optimizing Nursing Home Care
	177 / Specific End-of-Life Issues
	177 / Hospice in the Nursing Home
	178 / Documentation
	178 / The Bottom Line
	179 / A Note to Caregivers
	181 / The Hospice Perspective
183	Chapter 11—End-of-Life Care Issues in the Intensive Care Unit
	186 / ICU Pitfalls
	190 / Strategies for Optimizing ICU End-of-Life Care
	190 / Withdrawal of Support
	192 / Other Ethical Issues in the ICU
	192 / The Bottom Line
195	Chapter 12—End-of-Life Care Issues in the Emergency Department
	198 / Optimizing End-of-Life Care in the ED
203	Chapter 13—Special Considerations
	203 / Organ Donation
	207 / Stewardship
213	Chapter 14—Medications Commonly Used in Terminal Care
	213 / Narcotics
	216 / Sedatives
217	Afterword
218	Appendix A—Explanation of Terms
	218 / Do Not Resuscitate Order (DNR)
	219 / End-Stage Disease
	220 / Health Care Power of Attorney (HCPOA)
	220 / Hospice
	221 / Living Will
	222 / Palliative Care
223	Appendix B—Sample Orders
224	Appendix C—Suggested Reading
226	About the Authors
227	Notes Section